BANQUE POUR LE COMMERCE EXTERIEUR LAO PUBLIC

BCEL supported more than 600 million LAK to the 2 central provinces and 4 southern provinces of Laos that affected by the floods as part of the bank's campaign for loving the nation.

The management of Banque Pour Le Commerce Exterieur Lao Public (BCEL) participated in the campaign for loving the nation by supporting the rice in the amount 73 metric tons or equivalent to 600 million LAK to the 2 central provinces and 4 southern provinces of Laos that affected by the floods. The fund was approved by the Board of Directors of BCEL and was presented to the provinces by the Chief of each BCEL's southern branch.

During 17-19 September 2019, BCEL's Khammouane Branch, Savannakhet Branch, Salavan Branch, Attapeu Branch, Sekong Branch and Champasak Branch, led by the Chiefs of the Branches, delivered 73 metric tons of rice to 6 provinces or equals to 600 million LAK that affected by the floods to express the caring and sharing by BCEL's management and staff to the victims from the floods in 6 provinces for the first phase of aid.

In this support, the bank provided rice to the 6 provinces including Khammouane Province for 8 tons of rice or equals to 65,6 million LAK, Savannakhet Province 20 tons of rice or equals to 164 million LAK, Salavan Province 20 tons of rice or equals to 164 million LAK, Attapeu Province 5,17 tons of rice or 42,39 million LAK, Sekong Province 10 ton of rice or equals to 82 million LAK and Champasak 10 tons of rice or equals to 82 million LAK. The total value is 600 million LAK.

The official handover ceremony was held with many witnesses including Chief of BCEL's Branch in each southern branch, the government office representatives and related entities. In the handover ceremony, the government's representative of each province expressed their sincere thanks to the management and the staff of BCEL for the rice donation because in this situation, rice is necessary for the flood victims and the related teams promised to distribute the rice to the locals in the right proportion and as fast as possible.

BCEL would like to express our condolence to the events of flooding disasters in the 2 central provinces and 4 southern provinces of Laos due to the heavy rain in September. The bank and the staff would like to send the encouragement and sharing to the victims.

Apart from this support, BCEL also mobilizes the fund from the staff in overall the country and opens the donation project on BCEL Oneheart to support for the 2 central provinces and 4 southern provinces of Laos that affected by the floods which the information is available on: www.oneheart.la affected by the floods, the givers were the representatives from BCEL and the receivers were the representatives from the government offices of each province and witnessed by the related parties.

From heart to heart! BCEL is sending our love and care to the flood victims in 2 central provinces and 4 southern provinces.
