Fund Donation Ceremony
Between UnionPay International and BCEL
via Oneheart to support the victims from floods at Attapeu Province. Lao PDR
Vientiane Capital, October 30, 2018

On Tuesday, 30th October 2018 at BCEL’s Head Office, Banque Pour Le Commerce Exterieur Public (BCEL) held the Fund Donation Ceremony to receive the donation via BCEL OneHeart from UnionPay International to support the victims from flood at Attapeu Province, Lao PDR in the amount of 87.000.000 LAK. The fund was received on behalf of the victims by Mr. Nanthalath Keopaseuth, Deputy Managing Director of BCEL. The ceremony was attended by the representative from the Ministry of Welfare and Social Security, Directors of BCEL, Chief of Divisions, Centers, staff and media from various channels.

BCEL and UnionPay International have started the cooperation since 2012. The outstanding cooperation are the issuance of the card products and services such as the changing of the domestic ATM card of BCEL which formerly the cardholder can only use the card within the country to be BCEL UnionPay Card which the customer can use the card both in the country and in overseas. Besides the issuance of ATM UnionPay Card, the two institutions also cooperate in issuing the Student ATM Card for Lao National University and other colleges in overall the country. For the people in the society can benefit by using UnionPay ATM card instead of using cash and when going to overseas, they can also use the card for making secure payments conveniently.

One of UnionPay’s core values is “Shared Growth”, aspiring to create mutual benefits and win-win results together with partners in local markets by giving back to the society. In this regard, UnionPay had carried out donations, environment protection activities, community construction and volunteer services in several Asian markets.

BCEL would like to this opportunity as on behalf of the victims to express the sincere thanks to UnionPay International for the kind donation to support for the victims from flood at Attapeu Province via BCEL OneHeart.
